

GUEST STAR ↗ 28pt

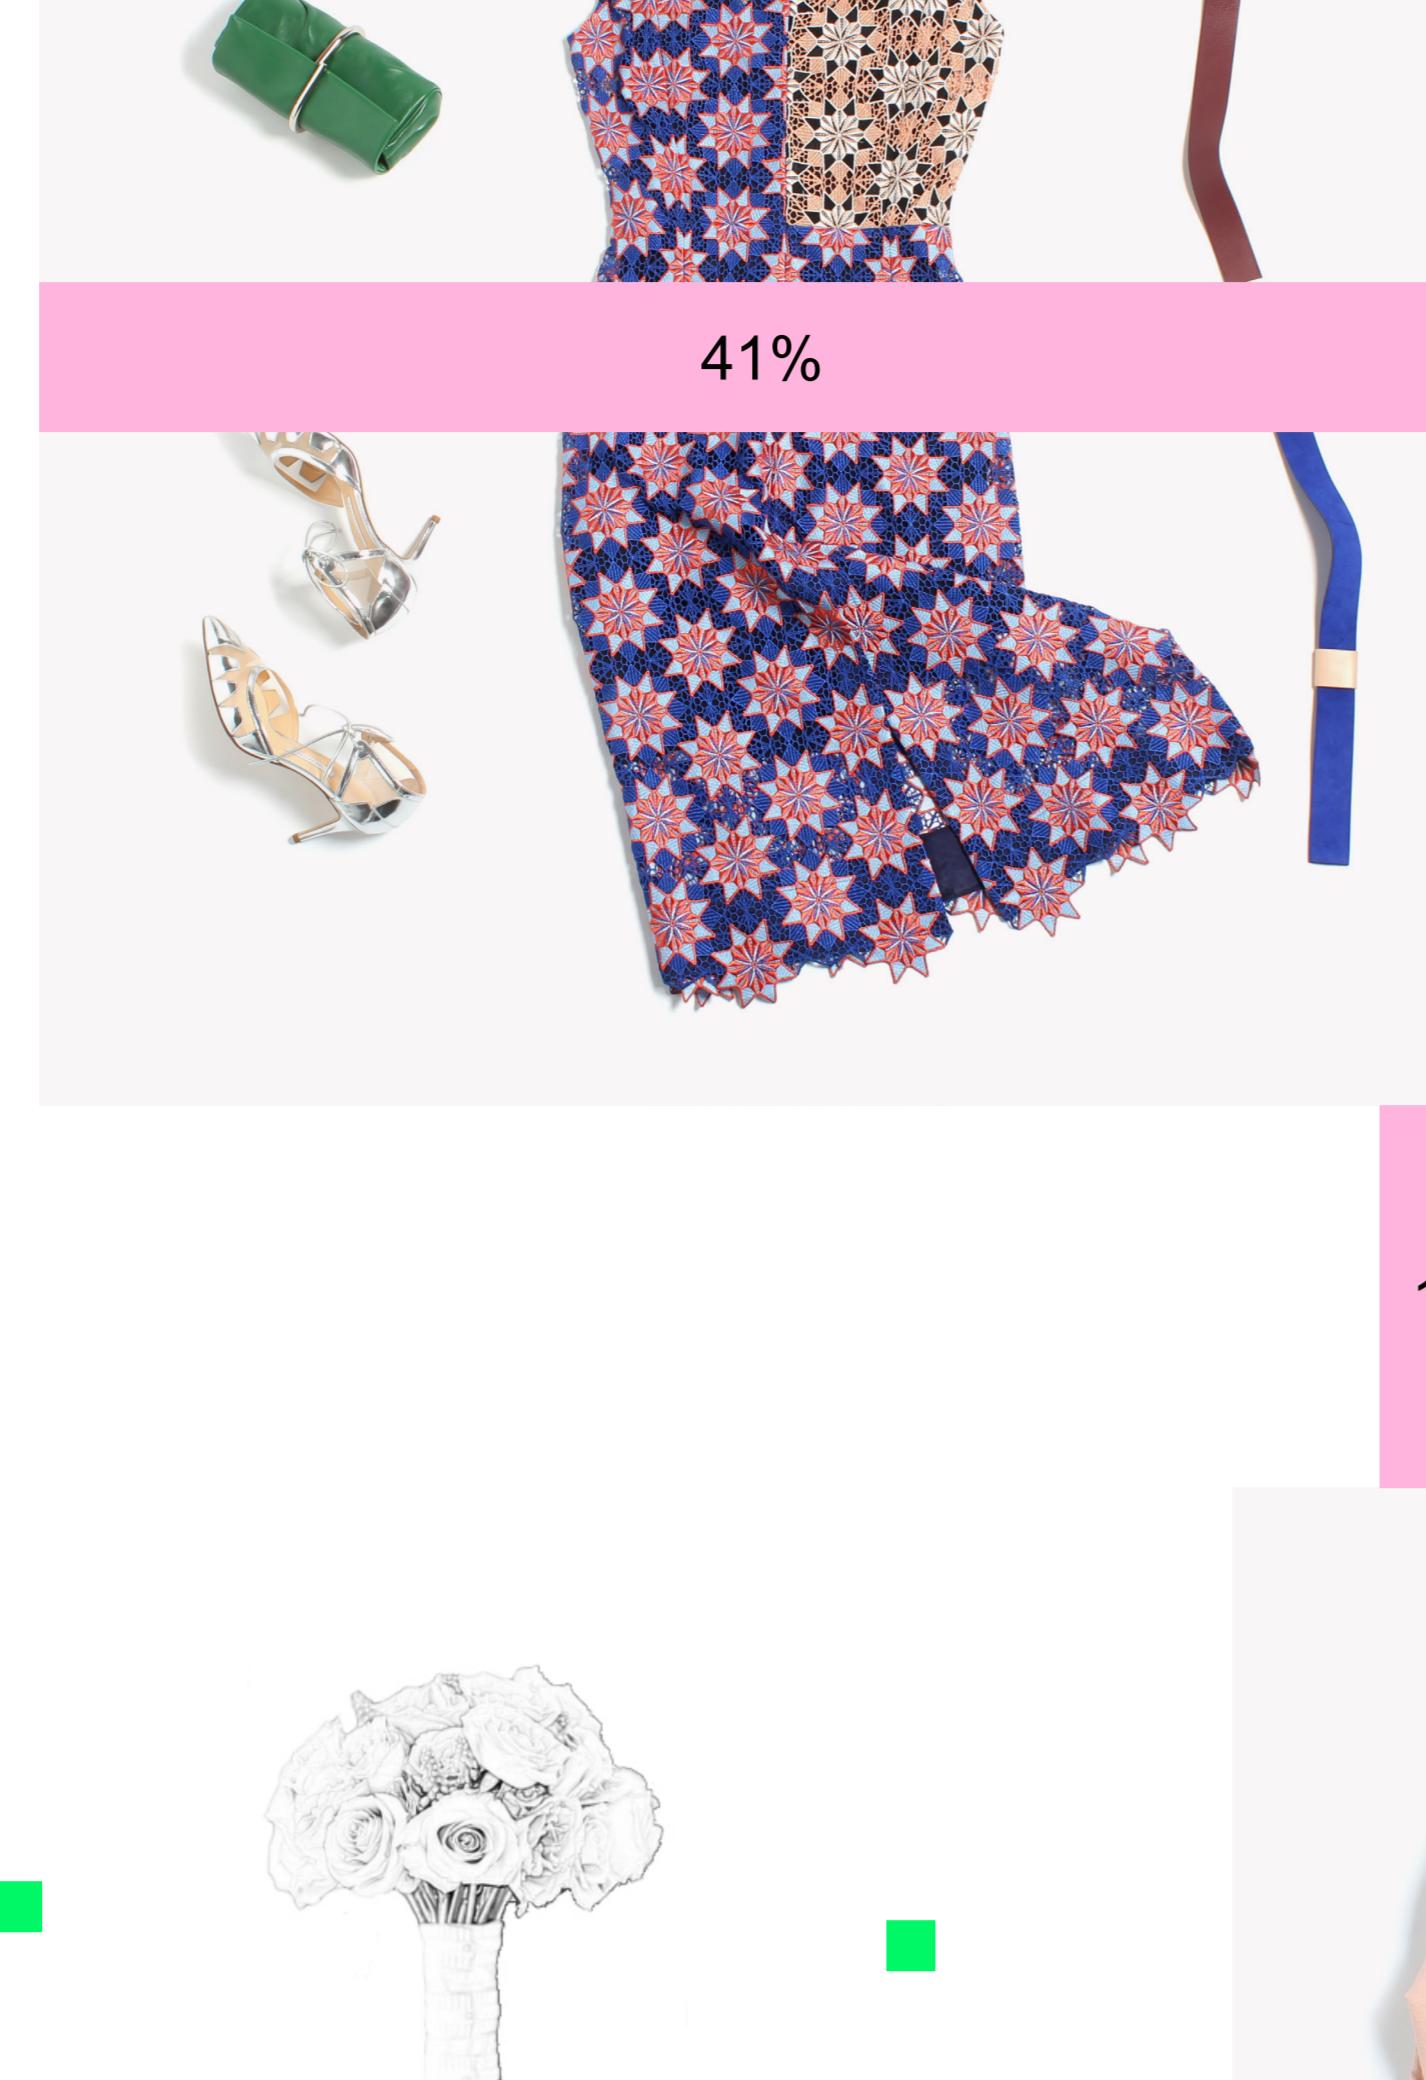

30px ↙ How to shine at your next event ↙ 13pt

65px

33%

The greatest guest stars outshine the main cast or the other event attendees. If that's your sartorial goal this Spring/Summer, we've got the scene-stealing looks to make it happen, whatever the dress code.

70px

41%

140px

13px

21px Lineheight

Arial

↗

25%

↗

51px

67px Lineheight
Playfair Italic

Garden Party

25%

Take us literally with this starry lace midi (from Jonathan Saunders' standout final collection), sexy silvery heels and an unexpected pop of green. These flattering shades and shapes are trans-seasonal so they'll stun any time of year.

SHOP NOW ▶

13px
21px Lineheight
Arial

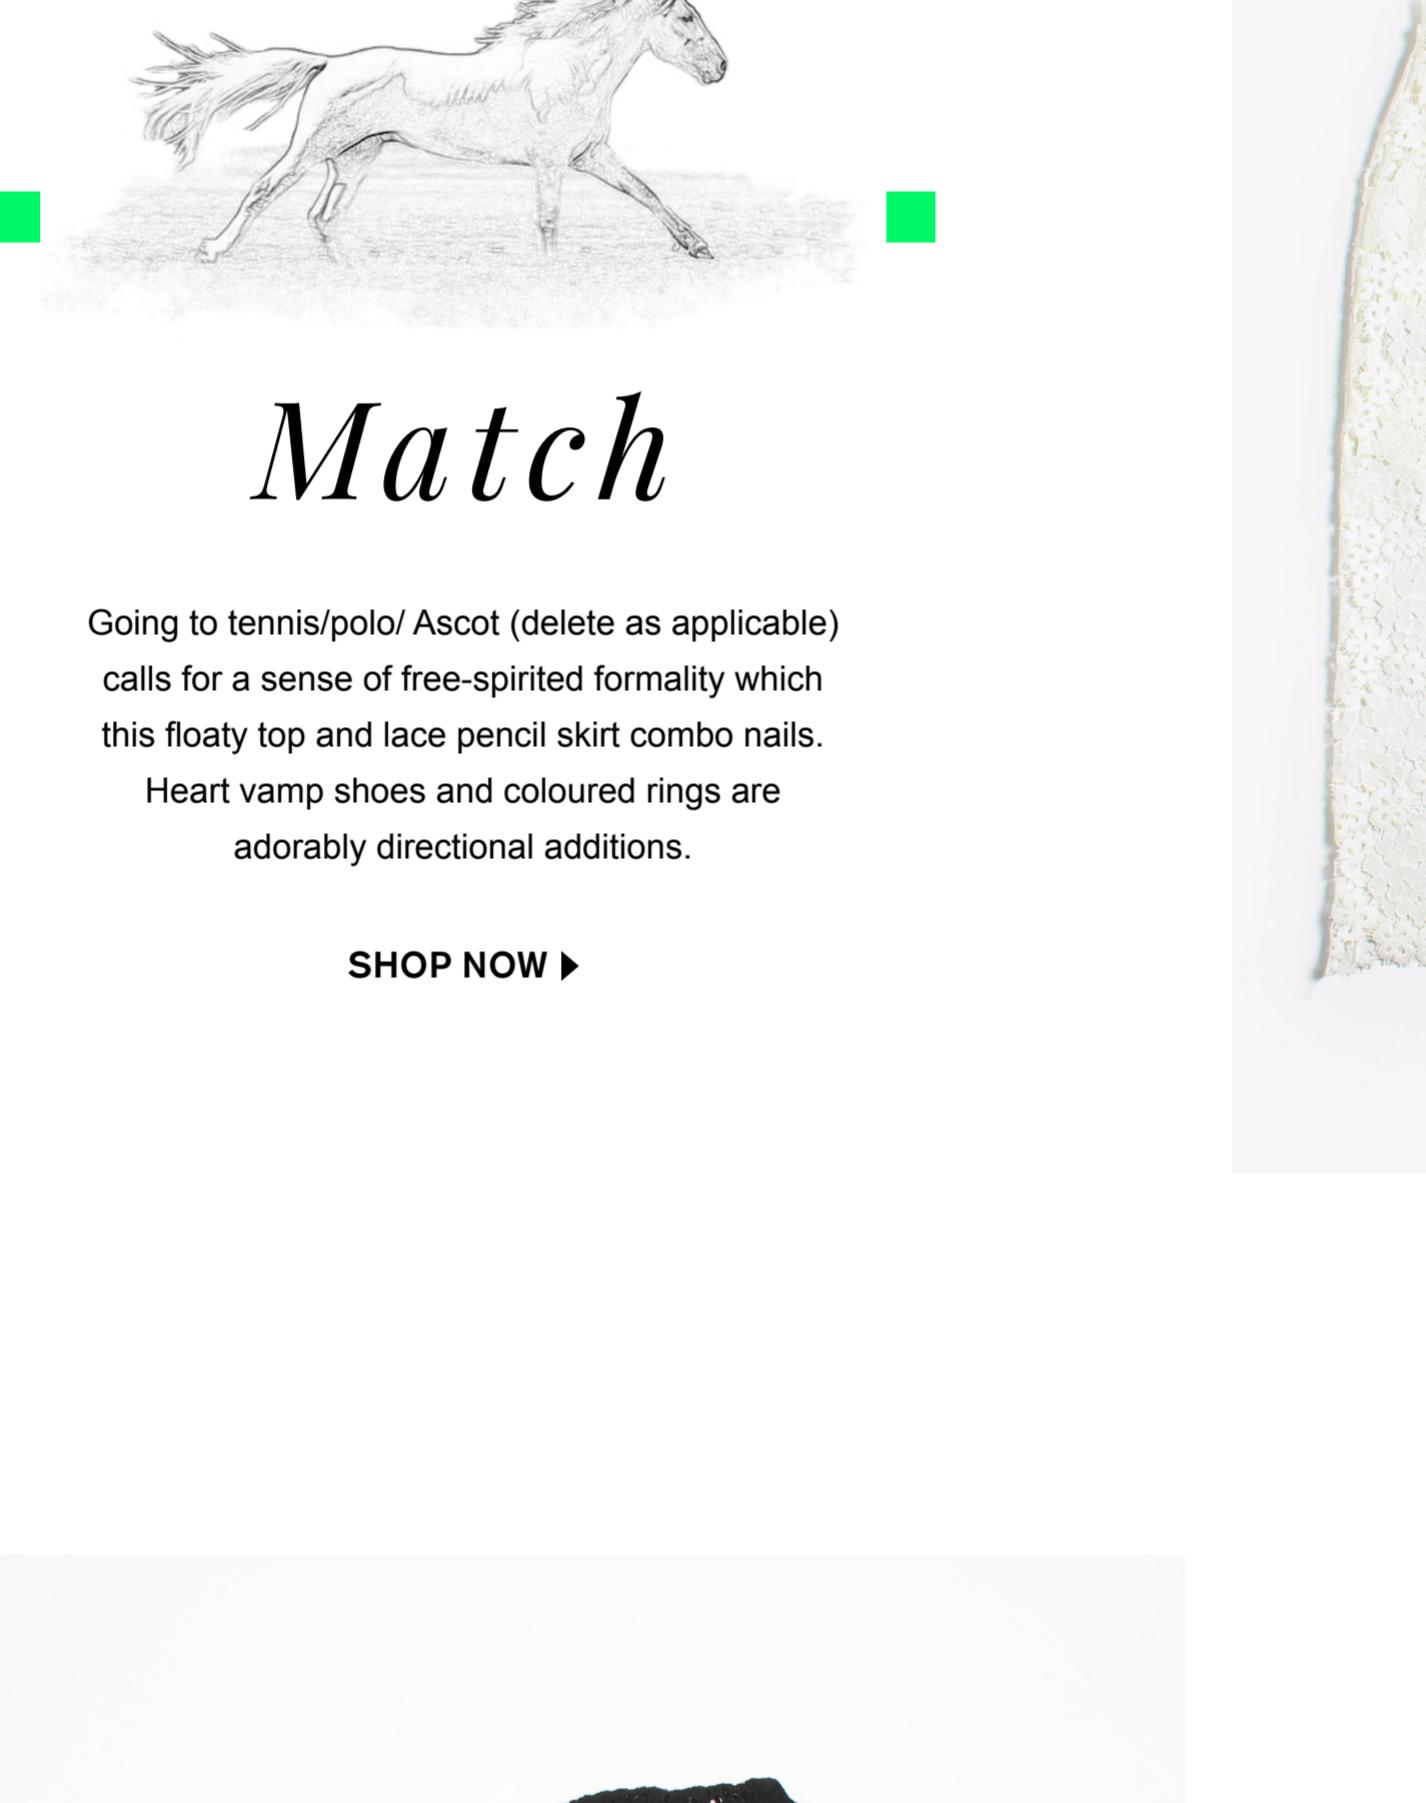

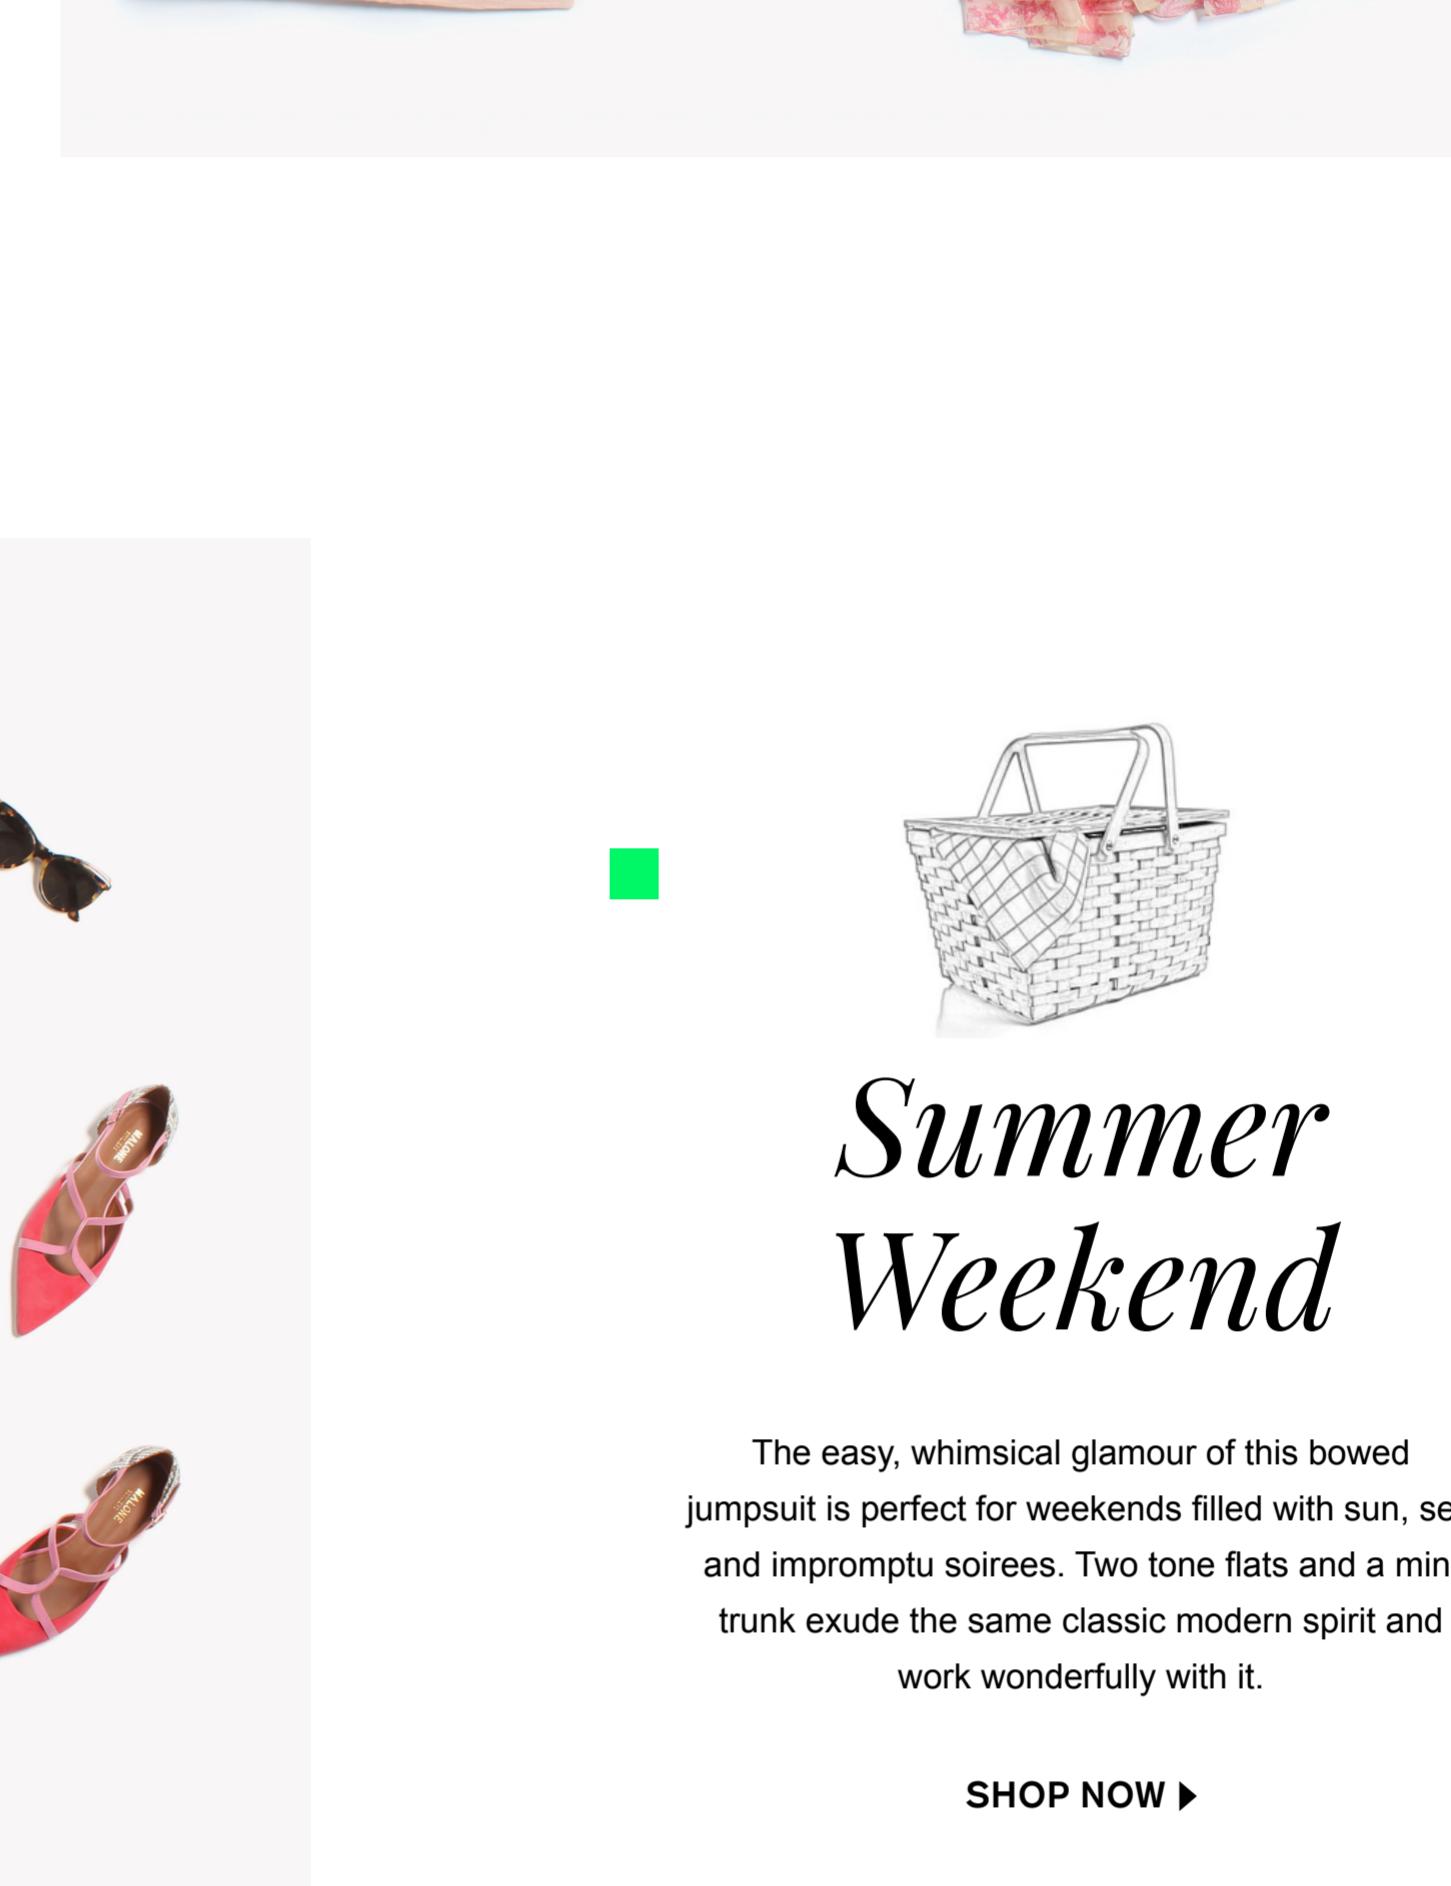

↗

Wedding

You can stick to a pastel palette but use a poetic print to stand out in the inevitable sea of florals. This floaty, ruffled dress is just as romantic and artful accessories add a decorative dimension.

SHOP NOW ▶

Summer Weekend

The easy, whimsical glamour of this bowed jumpsuit is perfect for weekends filled with sun, sea and impromptu soirees. Two tone flats and a mini trunk exude the same classic modern spirit and work wonderfully with it.

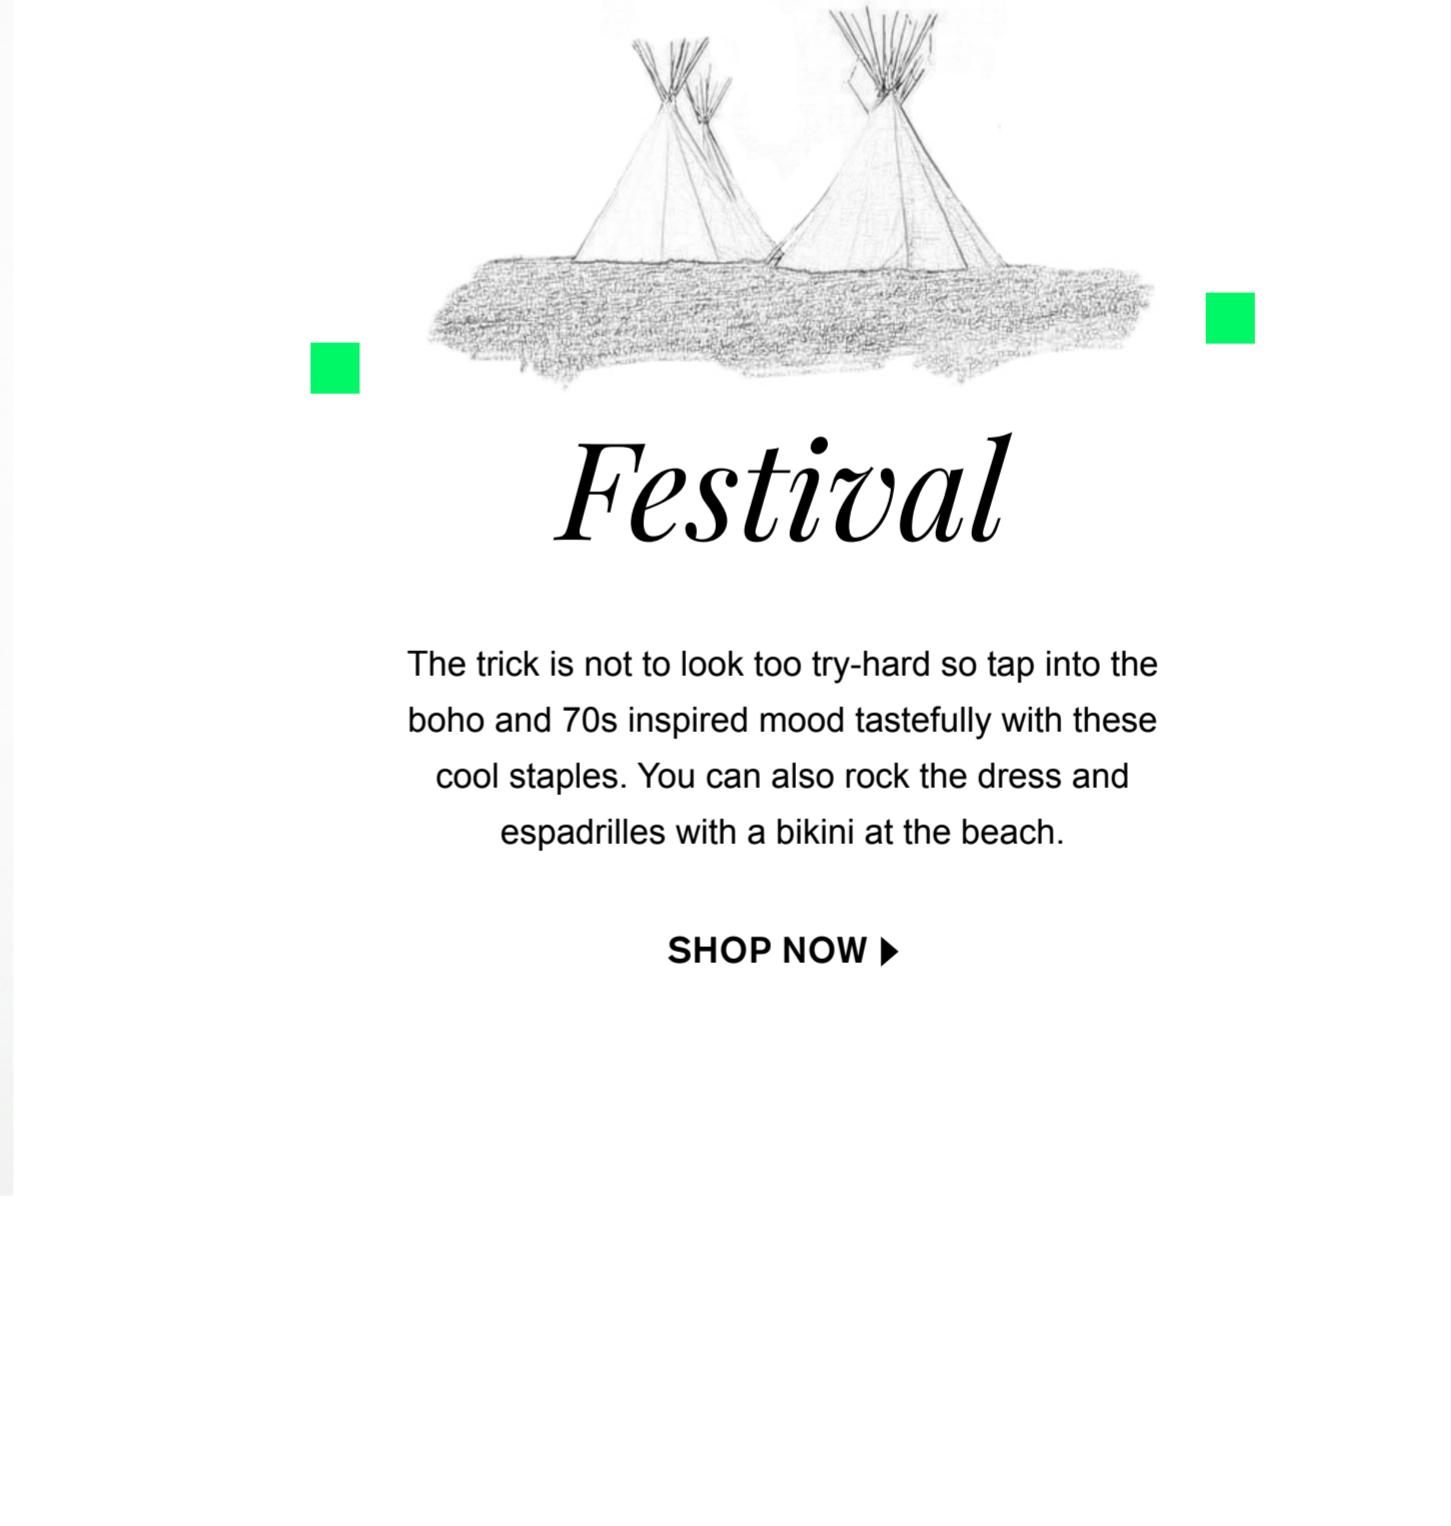

SHOP NOW ▶

Match

Going to tennis/polo/Ascot (delete as applicable) calls for a sense of free-spirited formality which this floaty top and lace pencil skirt combo nails. Heart vamp shoes and coloured rings are adorably directional additions.

SHOP NOW ▶

Festival

The trick is not to look too try-hard so tap into the boho and 70s inspired mood tastefully with these cool staples. You can also rock the dress and espadrilles with a bikini at the beach.

SHOP NOW ▶

Festival